1971 MG Midget 1275 Tax Exempt The MG Midget has always been one of Britain's iconic little sports cars. Ideal as a starter classic, and also ideal for someone who may already have classic cars but would like a small sporty run around for those days with the sun shining, and the need to nip down to the shops for a few odds and ends. Simply pop the roof down, hop in and the drive to the shop on those errands couldn't be easier or more pleasant. This car, finished in British Racing Green is in simply stunning condition. It comes with a tan interior which compliments the exterior, and makes a very pleasant change from black. The paintwork simply gleams. The finish has almost got a glass like lustre. Obviously a combination of great paint finish and year of polish and elbow grease. It is fitted with the correct wheels, and these have been recently renovated. There is a massive history file with the car detailing the work that's been done over the years. And the car had a huge re...
