1963 MGB Roadster An MGB, just about the most typical of British Classic Sports cars. However, occasionally, just occasionally, one comes along that truly raises the bar, and this is one such car. An original 1963 Pull Handle MGB, but this car was built to replicate as near as possible the Morley Brothers 1964 Monte Carlo Class winner 7DBL, by the MG Owners club, with advice from Don Morley himself and also Den Green & Tommy Welman who worked in the BMC Competitions department in the early sixties using copies of the original factory build sheets. The engine was built on behalf of the MG Owners Club by Oselli. Now, after a successful competition career, with significant expense the car is in exceptional condition once again and has a tremendous spec containing: Registration Number 41DBL Ivor Searle 1850 cc Engine Weber 40DCOE Carburettor Gearbox, 4 Speed Part Synchro, Close Ratio, Straight Cut 1st, 2nd, 3rd, with overdrive on 3rd and 4th Competition Suspension with uprated Sp...
