Mercedes Benz 280SL 1986 Nothing personifies sophistication better than a Mercedes SL. They have a style that many have copied over the years, but have never quite managed to achieve that certain something. Suave, stylish, practical, and drop dead gorgeous. An SL does something for whoever is driving. This simply stunning 280SL was first registered in 1986, and in that time has covered a genuine 97000 miles in total. The Nautic Blue Paintwork absolutely gleams. The Magnolia Leather interior is soft and supple and virtually unmarked. Well, as is the rest of the car in reality. This is quite possibly the nicest of this model SL we have ever had in stock. Out on the road, there isn't a rattle or a squeak, it is a sheer joy. This car of course comes with both Hardtop and Soft tops. In fact the soft top looks like its brand new because it has been replaced. That History file is absolutely superb. It shows the genuine maintenance this car has had right from the initial PDi Stamp in ...
